

Social Events:

April – On April 21st, we heard Dave Lupinski from the Waste Authority tell about what happens to all the stuff we put out at the curb every week. 91 people turned out for the lunch at the Holiday Inn.

Upcoming Events

June – On Monday, June 21st the summer clambake will be held at The Roselawn. Please note the date change. Also note the bargain price. See the attached flyer for details.

July – There will once again be a golf outing at Stonebridge Country Club. Wednesday, July 21st will be the day to tee off. See the attached flyer for details.

August – There are no events planned for August.

September – We are looking into having a bus trip but are still undecided as to date or destination.

Community Service Events

AARP Tax Program Bill Nevits, with 26 local people (12 of whom are GE folks) served as AARP Tax-Aides. They donated a total of 3697 volunteer hours (72% by the GE volunteers) to prepare, review, and submit 2160 tax returns. The GE volunteers you might know:

Dick Ackley	John Aliasso
Tony Bertin	Frank Lapertosa
Ken Miller	Bill Nevits
Jim Pease	Ray Potasiewicz
Bob Roach	John Shannon
Ken Sliski	Betty Way

Mid-York Talking Books Repair (Chuck Harvan) – In April, the nine GE volunteers and 2 Pioneers made repairs to two book machines and quality reviewed and shipped 31 additional books machines. Of the 148 volunteered hours, 121 were by GE'ers.

Children's Museum (Stephenson) – John Stephenson (895-7584) is still seeking help with the Erie Canal Lock project for the Children's Museum. John has some ideas but does need some technical input from the nuts and bolts guys.

Hope House (Axelson) – Hope House will have some work done on the entrance hall, the dining room, and the cellar in the coming months

Parkway Community Center – George Fitzgerald has got the plans approved to build horseshoe pits in June. The plan is to have a “community service crew” due the manual labor.

NOTES

Email only delivery . If you are still getting both email and the US Mail hard copy and can live with just getting an email copy, send Ron Houghtaling an email stating your willingness to get just the email.
