

A First Look at the 2009 Decisions of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

A Telecast by the American University Law Review, Program on Information Justice and Intellectual Property, and The Federal Circuit Bar Association at American University Washington College of Law

February 4, 2010

Washington College of Law
4801 Massachusetts Ave, NW – Room 603
Washington, DC

6:30- 8:00 p.m. EST (reception from 5:30pm- 6:30)

To commemorate the 25th Anniversary of its Federal Circuit issue, the American University Law Review will host a panel of practitioners who will discuss their impressions of the Federal Circuit's decisions in 2009. The panelists will offer their insights on significant cases and jurisprudential trends in the areas of patent, trademark, international trade, government contracts, and veterans claims law.

The panelists for this program include: Patent: Joyce Craig, Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett, & Dunner LLP; Trademark: Rebecca Gan, Washington College of Law '02; Government Contracts: Dan Graham, Wiley Rein LLP; International Trade: Pat Fitch, Alston + Bird LLP (WCL '08); and Veterans Claims: Lee Perla, Jones Day. Michael Carroll, Professor and Director of the Program on Information Justice and Intellectual Property (PIJIP) along with Scott McCaleb, Wiley Rein LLP, will moderate.

In addition to on-site attendance, the FCBA will also broadcast the program live via the web on February 4, 2010 as a part of its regular Horizons series.
